AGING/SCHMAGING CONCERT: A CELEBRATION OF AGELESS LEGENDARY PERFORMERS

January 9, 2019 • 11:45 AM
Cohen/Friedkin Sanctuary

Like Dolly Parton, Chita Rivera, Carole King, Bette Midler, Tina Turner, and Gloria Estefan, just some of the performers celebrated in her, nothing keeps Naomi Miller down! For her show, Naomi has invented the word "schmaging" to define performers who are aged sixty and above and who are still going strong, still hot, and still got what it takes. In addition to the divas, Naomi also sings the songs of the divos – Tony Bennett, Paul McCartney, Billy Joel, Stevie Wonder, and Neil Sedaka and also celebrates schmaging with some original and Broadway tunes.

Congregation B'nai Israel's annual Nagle Family Jewish Film Festival offers a series of inspiring films with hosts who introduce each film and lead a discussion afterward.

The films take place on Wednesdays at 7:00 pm in the VIP Cocktail Lounge with popcorn and dessert accompanying each film. There is no cost for members, SLJ & NCECE families and a $10 donation per film for guests. The Film Festival is generously sponsored by the Nagle Family.

This year we have an exciting lineup of films! Registration will take place at the door for each film. We encourage you to come early as there is limited seating!
