President's Message:

As we enter 5787, we stand at a pivotal moment in our congregation's journey. Together, we have the opportunity to strengthen our community, deepen our connections, and ensure that CBI continues to be a place of meaning, inspiration, and belonging.

Each year, our High Holy Days Appeal plays a vital role in sustaining who we are and what we do. Your generosity directly supports our ritual services, pastoral care, and the wide array of programs that enrich our lives. From uplifting worship to lifelong learning and opportunities to care for one another, your gift ensures that CBI remains a spiritual home for all of us today and for the generations to come.

We invite you to join us in helping shape the future we can build, achieve, and share together.

L'Shanah Tovah,

Barry Schwartz
CBI President

The Fight Against Antisemitism

Knowledge. Advocacy. Action.

Thursday, Oct 8 | 7:00 PM
Cohen/Friedkin Sanctuary

Three years after the October 7 attacks on Israel, antisemitism continues to rise around the world, even as advocacy and support for the Jewish people have grown stronger.

Hear from former Congressman Ted Deutch who represented Boca Raton in Congress for 12 years and now serves as CEO of American Jewish Committee (AJC), for a timely and inspiring conversation about the challenges we face, the opportunities to combat antisemitism through education, advocacy, and action, and how each of us can help strengthen our communities and build a more secure future.

The evening includes a Q&A, followed by an Israeli-themed dessert reception. Presented in partnership with the Am Yisrael Chai Auxiliary of CBI.

- Free for CBI Members.
- $36 for Community Guests.
